Exquisite spaces bathed in light

A UNIQUE LUXURY HOTEL IN MARRAKESH

The journey continues in the corridors of La Mamounia, which magically reproduce the Medina's narrow streets. Behind the characteristic wooden doors that preserve our guests' privacy lie 135 rooms and 71 suites, where the quintessence of Moroccan craftsmanship is expressed in all its splendour, alongside impeccable contemporary decoration.

For an even more singular experience, our three riads are ideal for either a family or a group of friends seeking private accommodation.

“La Mamounia is an oasis of calm, of luxury and sensuality, far from the hustle and bustle of the city”

Hivernage Classic Twin Rooms

Located between the garden level and the first floor, facing the hotel's main entrance, the Hivernage Classic twin rooms are decorated in a refined Moroccan style that blends wood and tadelakt with rich fabrics.

With sizes ranging from 28 to 40 sq. m, the neutral tones dominate richer colors, creating a sensation of calm and tranquillity, while sculpted wood illustrates the magnificence of local craftsmanship.

The Hivernage Classic twin rooms offer 2 twin beds and a beautifully designed bathroom with a separate bath and shower.

Hivernage Superior Rooms

Located between the hotel's second and fourth floor, all Hivernage Superior Rooms enjoy a view of the Hivernage residential neighborhood with a size ranging from 28 to 40 sq. m.

Balance and harmony are the watchwords of these enticing rooms that place an emphasis on neutral, soothing tones accentuated with a touch of color – a vast frieze of traditional zelliges.

The Hivernage Superior Rooms offer a king size bed and a beautifully designed bathroom with a separate bath and shower.

Deluxe Rooms

Spread throughout all floors of the hotel and decorated in a Moroccan style, the Deluxe Rooms are characterised by their panoramic views and private outdoor spaces. They all boast a terrace with a connecting door.

Whereas the Koutoubia Deluxe rooms afford a privileged view of the famous 12th century mosque, the Park Deluxe rooms promise a unique view over La Mamounia's luxurious gardens.

Yet more spacious and located on the upper floors, the Agdal Deluxe rooms overlook the swimming pools, gardens and historic Agdal neighbourhood. In the distance, the Atlas Mountains magnify this unparalleled setting.

“A relaxing moment at the heart of a legendary venue.”

The Suites

Bathed in light, our 65 Suites and 6 Signature Suites subtly embody the gentle way of life in Morocco, combined with the refinement and elegance of contemporary decoration.

From the bed linen (Porthault) to the terry bathrobes (Garnier Thiebaut), not to mention the soft carpeting and ultra-luxurious fabrics, all the facilities in our luxury Suites and the impeccable details invite our guests to take time out for themselves.

Decorated with marble and punctuated with zelliges, all our en suite bathrooms have a bath and shower, and are fully equipped. To enhance your bathroom ritual, La Mamounia provides complimentary signature toiletries, whose delicious garden citrus scents will instantly soothe the mind.

Hivernage Suites

Overlooking the main entrance of the hotel, the Hivernage suites are filled with calm and serenity. With a surface size of 85 sq. m and a king size bed, these suites present the impeccable decoration and the luxurious facilities which make the reputation of La Mamounia.

The large living room, the romantic terrace with pergola and the bathroom with separate shower and bathtub, all confer to this suite warmth and privacy.

Park Suites

These suites offer a bedroom with a large king size bed, a living room with a sofa bed equipped with the most refined tailor-made furnitures and a beautifully designed bathroom with a separate shower and bathtub.

Located on the hotel's middle floors and close to the main elevators, the Park suites offer a size ranging from 55 to 70 sq. m with a panoramic view over La Mamounia's legendary gardens and the Atlas Mountains.

Agdal Suites

With a captivating view over the swimming pool, the Agdal Suites offer the beauty a Moroccan interior with the ultimate modern comfort.

The Agdal Suites subtly embody the sweetness of Moroccan life mixed with the refinement and elegance of contemporary decoration. Ranging in size from 55 to 60 sq. m, they feature finely decorated bedrooms, balconies, a king size bed and a distinguished bathroom with separate shower and bathtub.

Duplex Suites

Ideally located with a size of 75 sq. m, the bedroom offers either a king size bed or two double beds and is opened onto a private terrace in the midst of lush gardens, with special access to the swimming pool.

The combination of marble and Moroccan style gives to the bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub, a soothing atmosphere.

Located at the hotel's garden floor, the Duplex Suites benefit from an upper-level terrace and an elegant living room decorated in colors inspired from the spices of the market. Deep red, saffron yellow and striking green bring warm tones to the contemporary, refined decor of these airy suites in harmony with nature.

Executive Suites

The quintessence of Moroccan craftsmanship, the Executive Suites are all decorated in a traditional spirit where elegant details emulate luxurious materials.

With a surface area of 70 sq. m, the Executive Suites boast a terrace with an unobstructed view of the gardens and the Atlas Mountains.

Sumptuous and comfortable, the Executive Suites invite our guests into the heart of oriental refinement for a relaxed stay in a class of its own. Only the room sizes and views vary, offering guests an even more personalised experience.

Prestige Suites

Situated between the 2nd and 4th floor, the Prestige Suites offer a panoramic view from their terraces over the luxuriant gardens and snow-capped Atlas Mountains.

Offering one bedroom with a king size bed, a distinguished bathroom with separate shower and bathtub and two living rooms in which one has a sofa bed for more privacy, these generously sized luxury suites of 100 sq. m are all decorated in a contemporary style.

Showcasing a subtle interplay of zelliges, rich fabrics and sculpted wood, the Prestige Suites make up an elegant ensemble where charm and sophistication come together.

Koutoubia Suite

This space that tends towards intimacy reveals opulent touches of Moroccan craftsmanship.

With tiled zellige walls and sculpted wooden ceilings, the Koutoubia suite has a rotunda living room in the "Menzeh" style that offers a spectacular view over the Koutoubia mosque.

Situated on the 3rd floor of the hotel, the Koutoubia Suite is a bright and airy space with multiple windows that unveil the mysteries of Marrakesh.

Comprising one bedroom with a king size bed, one living room and two bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub, this vast suite of 109 sq. m is decorated in beige tones with traditional wooden furniture.

Baldaquin Suite

Overlooking the swimming pool, the Baldaquin Suite comprises a bedroom with a king size bed, a living room and two bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub. The Baldaquin Suite of 77 sq. m is an idyllic and elite heaven for lovers. The marquetry work is remarkable, and the walls display portraits of married couples dressed in traditional costumes, suffusing this suite with a romantic spirit, ideal for celebrating unforgettable moments.

The Baldaquin Suite owes its name from the sumptuous bed, upholstered in white taffeta, which takes pride of place in the center of the room. The tone is set in this vast signature suite that celebrates love in a subtle interplay of ivory and cream shades. There is no red or traditional colors, the neutral tones enhance the refined decoration, which – from the floor to the hand-painted ceiling – exudes a soothing, radiant aura.

Churchill Suite

A replica of the statue in London, a portrait of the great man with his cigar, and the engraving of his name above the bed are just some of the nods to this personality dotted around this luxury Suite, where tartan armchairs and Moroccan furniture cohabit with grace.

The spirit of Winston Churchill reigns over this signature suite that bears his name.

Overlooking the gardens he loved to paint during his stays at La Mamounia, this spacious suite of 107 sq. m is composed of two bedrooms with a king size bed and two double beds, one living room and two bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub.

Majorelle Suite

Comprising two bedrooms with a king size bed and two double beds, a living room and two bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub, the Majorelle suite overlooks the flower garden, the swimming-pool and the Atlas Mountains.

Designed as a tribute to the famous painter Jacques Majorelle, whose portrait is displayed at the entrance, the Majorelle Suite captivates with its vibrant colors and textured fabrics.

The blue – the artist's favorite color – is embellished by mosaics of shimmering zelliges and vivid splashes of orange in the suite's two bedrooms that extends on 114 sq. m.

Marqueterie Suite

Wood reigns as a master and warms up the beige fabrics that cover the walls of this suite with a subdued atmosphere. While elegant wood paintings depict traditional scenes of Moroccan life, the vintage furniture of 1920s sublimates this luxury Suite with pure and rigorous lines.

Outside, the terrace offers a privileged view over the gardens, while the Atlas Mountains rise up from far away.

Unique by its distinctive Art Deco furniture, the Marqueterie Suite is the second most spacious of La Mamounia' suites with 155 sq. m comprising two bedrooms with a king size bed and their own bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub and a spacious living room.

Al Mamoun Suite

Comprising two bedrooms with a king size bed and two double beds, two bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub and a spacious living room, the Al Mamoun Suite of 212 sq. m is ideal for those who are seeking space and privacy.

Transfixed, the gaze settles on two Chinese vases framing the wide French windows that open onto the terraces. Rising up in the distance, the Atlas Mountains enhances this Royal oasis.

The Al Mamoun Suite is a destination of its own. Rooted in the history of La Mamounia through its name and princely decoration, the Al Mamoun suite is an antique lover's dream.

Furnished with paintings and works of art from around the world, its multiple influences and unusual decoration create a perfect alchemy between the Orient and the Baroque period.

The Riads

Settled around a patio, these typically Moroccan settings, wonderfully cultivate the art of discretion and privacy. Inside, the dining room, the living room as well as the three bedrooms with king size beds, two double beds, private bathrooms with separate shower and bathtub, are decorated in the same luxurious and opulent style as our most beautiful suites.

In a private setting deep in the heart of La Mamounia's gardens, three elegant Riads with a surface area of 700 sq. m offer a privileged and unique experience while benefiting from several personalized services of the hotel.

Each of our spacious Riads has a heated swimming pool and a private terrace, and can accommodate six guests.

Noble materials and traditional touches testify the Moroccan expertise, while the general atmosphere of these spacious and harmonious settings is infused with a chic and refined contemporary touch.

All the amenities of our three Riads and the perfection of the detail invite our guests to take time for themselves. A butler is dedicated to each Riad 24 hours a day to make the experience simply irresistible.

The Restaurants

A shared experience of gustative discovery

RESTAURANTS AT LA MAMOUNIA

With shaded terraces, fresh produce harvested from our vegetable garden and unbound creativity, the four restaurants at La Mamounia have it all and are sure to fulfil your every desire.

Spearheaded by leading names in the world of gastronomy, our four restaurants will take you on the most exciting sensory and culinary journeys. In these warm and inviting settings decorated in a contemporary style, a mouth-watering medley of oriental, Mediterranean and Asian flavours compose a gourmet symphony for your taste buds.

Be they Moroccan, Italian, Asian or Mediterranean, the restaurants offer menus that reflect the seasons, and the Sunday brunch remains a key attraction in Marrakesh.

Le Marocain

THE GREAT CLASSICS OF THE RED CITY REVISITED

Dining in our quintessentially Moroccan restaurant in Marrakesh is a captivating experience savoured to the rhythm of a trio of Andalusian musicians.

Our restaurant Le Marocain is an ode to the country's hospitality, and guests are welcomed as friends into an enchanting and warm environment. The Moroccan cuisine favoured by families in the region is sublimated by Chef Rachid Agouray, who enthusiastically captures the finest nuances and characteristic colours of Morocco in typical yet sophisticated dishes.

The table is set with an array of starters that exhilarate the senses as they succumb to the delicious aroma of spices and vegetables from our garden. For the main meal, iconic tagines and couscous dishes are prepared with passion, resulting in a convivial dining experience.

Comfortably seated, our guests dine in a cosy setting where alcoves, thick velvet benches and subdued lighting contribute to the intimate atmosphere. An institution for nearly 30 years.

L'Italien par Jean-Georges

AN AUTHENTIC AND GENEROUS ADDRESS

In a convivial and elegant atmosphere, chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten reinvents the luxury trattoria with various food preparation zones incorporated throughout the dining area.

Bathed in light, eyes are drawn to the restaurant's central island where the great classics of Italian cuisine are prepared. In the middle of the room, a wood-fired oven for baking delicious pizzas, while the antipasti bar provides free rein to all your fancies.

Discover the sun kissed vegetables from our garden and marry them liberally with the tastiest transalpine cured meats.

L'Asiatique par Jean-Georges

A FLAVOURSOME AND SOPHISTICATED MENU

An original creation by chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten, our restaurant L'Asiatique par Jean-Georges is located in the Hivernage neighbourhood of Marrakesh. It embarks our guests on a culinary journey that stretches from southeast Asia to the farthest reaches of Japan.

The menu, composed as an initiatory itinerary, takes you on a tour of flavours from the Far East.

Comforting curries, finely sliced crunchy vegetables and first-class sushi... Working with unparalleled precision, the chef presents delicious dishes to be shared, laden with Asian specialities, revisited with a clever twist and gastronomic expertise.

Le Pavillon de la Piscine

EXCEPTIONAL BUFFETS AT THE HEART OF LA MAMOUNIA

The iconic La Mamounia swimming pool is legendary in its own right. The adjacent pavilion welcomes our guests from breakfast onwards, where they can indulge their epicurean pleasures while admiring the fabulous view.

Built as a tribute to the Menara pavilion in Marrakesh, our restaurant Le Pavillon de la Piscine is a not-to-be-missed rendezvous for visitors to our five-star hotel.

The main lunch attraction, the rotisserie and its cutting station, offers an array of roasted and fragrant meats. To end the lunch on a sweet note, try one of the Pierre Hermé signature desserts.

The Bars

A place where sophistication and relaxation rhyme with pleasure

Lively, laid-back, low-key or festive, the four bars at La Mamounia, endeavour to satisfy your curiosity and fulfill your desires. They each have that extra touch of soul that makes our hotel legendary.

Whether it's a champagne tasting, a vitamin-rich juice or a daring cocktail, our sommeliers and mixologists are eager to surprise you in one of our La Mamounia bars, whereas our chefs will tantalize your taste buds with a sweet or savoury snack.

Le Churchill

IN ALL DISCRETION

As a tribute to its illustrious visitor, Le Churchill offers a cosy atmosphere that oozes British refinement, where you can sip champagne and savour exceptional spirits. Located in the Mamounia gallery at the heart of the hotel, Le Churchill is the essential port of call for epicureans and lovers of fine delicacies. Smoked fish and caviar are some of the snacks on the menu to accompany your tasting of grand cru wines at the counter (for 8) or at a table.

For cocktail enthusiasts, our barman concocts the boldest recipes to the tune of the seasons, using carefully selected spirits.

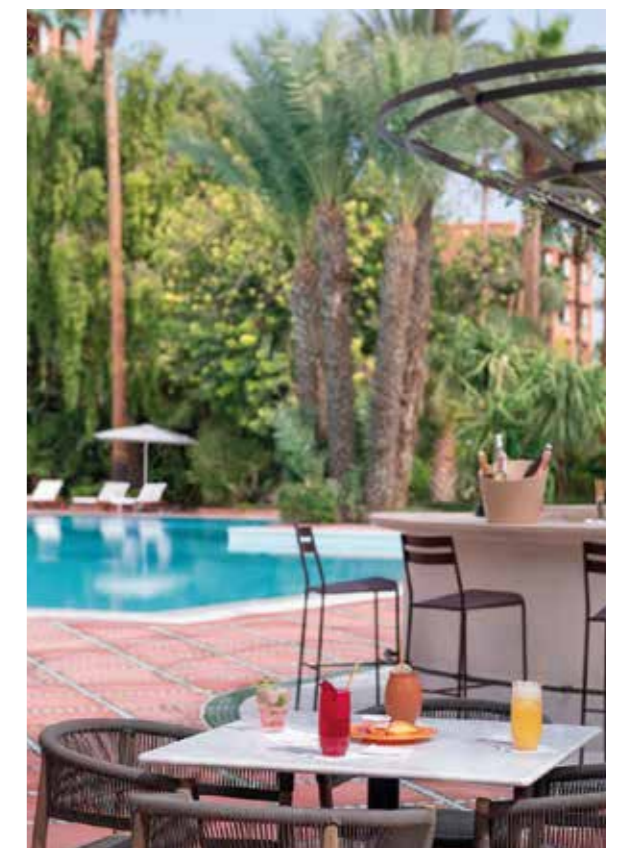

Le Bar de la Piscine

A REFRESHING BREAK BY THE POOL

Deep in the heart of La Mamounia hotel gardens in Marrakesh, Le Bar de la Piscine blends seamlessly into its surroundings with its vegetal, floral canopy.

Throughout the day, this charming green oasis offers a selection of refreshing fruit and vegetable juices made using ingredients from our gardens.

Try one of our healthy nectars – the surprising botanical notes stimulate the senses and boost your vitality.

Le Club

JOURNEY TO THE SOUND OF ORIENTAL MELODIES

Perched on the top floor of Le Marocain restaurant, Le Club is a full-blown, avant-garde culinary and musical adventure.

Under the tent or on the terrace that overlooks the lush gardens, our guests are invited to sample inventive Moroccan cuisine in the form of tapas, and to discover a lounge music atmosphere with oriental accents.

Ideal for an early evening drink or a post-dinner cocktail inspired by the country's treasures, Le Lounge Marocain still has many secrets up its sleeve.

Le Bar Majorelle

Le Bar Majorelle is a colourful place that takes its name from the famous Jacques Majorelle, French orientalist painter and Marrakech lover.

With Pierre Hermé at the controls, it has the flavour of a refined bistro and a menu of small dishes to share – traditional blanquette de veau or a salad of crab, avocado and grapefruit – the chef revisits the great classics of the Parisian cafés, adding a pinch of inventiveness, his own personal touch.

Sweet tooths need not worry, his signature desserts complete this delightful and exciting menu. Lively and festive, Le Bar Majorelle gets going in the evening to the beat of the resident band, as our mixologists take centre stage. Working together, they serve up a delicious selection of Mediterranean cocktails that electrify the senses.

The Tea Rooms

A comforting break in one of our Tea Rooms

The day's pace slows down as teatime approaches with the promise of a friendly interlude conducive to the sharing of confidences.

Away from prying eyes, take the time to enjoy a sweet or savoury treat in the intimate setting of our tea rooms, where a calm mind lends free rein to the senses.

Let yourself be tempted by Pierre Hermé's delectable creations and indulge yourself in a moment out of time at any hour of the day.

Le Menzeh par Pierre Hermé

A MOMENT OF RELAXATION IN A LEGENDARY HISTORICAL EDIFICE

La Mamounia's first historical building, Le Menzeh – for years known as “Le Marabout” and named according to the legend whereby a marabout watched over the hotel – can be discovered at the end of a stroll along a pathway lined with rose bushes and ancient olive trees.

With the Chef Pierre Hermé at the helm, this charming and picturesque pavilion offers a selection of ice cream treats, pastries and other chocolate delights. Our guests often enjoy a delicious mint tea here. A rare, precious moment that reflects the essence of the Moroccan way of life.

Le Salon de Thé par Pierre Hermé

Continuing on from the Mamounia gallery, Le Salon de Thé offers an indulgent break or tea tasting at any time of day. French toast, a variety of cakes, club sandwich, croque-monsieur and even lobster roll are some of the Pierre Hermé creations on the mouthwatering menu. For an afternoon treat, the chef suggests his signature macarons alongside ice cream sundaes and soft madeleines.

Both peaceful and majestic, the space comprises an interior lounge bathed in light from a monumental crystal chandelier, and an Andalusian patio with a winter garden allure. For an intimate, private breakfast, an enchanting afternoon treat or a quick snack on the go, Le Salon de Thé provides a relaxed yet elegant setting to enjoy a moment suspended in time.

The Exclusives

Discover your passions through unique experiences

Choosing La Mamounia means favouring a renowned hotel whose attentive service and legendary, unique setting deliver on all their promises. Discover our hedonistic paradise where time no longer counts.

L'Oenothèque

AN INTIMATE CULINARY EXPERIENCE

Enjoy an intensely pleasurable moment in our wine cellar located at the lower floor of the hotel. This exceptional place celebrates hedonism and the art of living. Designed to accommodate 12 guests, the wine cellar offers a tailored gastronomic experience. Take your pick from tasting menus proposed by our Chef, accompanied by a selection of grand cru wines.

Le Cinéma

ENCOUNTER WITH CINEMATIC ART

Reserved exclusively for hotel residents, our cinema can accommodate up to 20 people.

Every day, great classics and new releases are screened in this cosy and comfortable setting, where viewers can indulge in Pierre Hermé popcorn and snacks.

A ritual that celebrates La Mamounia's special relationship with the seventh art.

La Salle de Jeux

LA SALLE DE JEUX OFFERS VARIOUS ACTIVITIES AND SERVICES THAT WILL DELIGHT YOU.

A light meal menu as well as cold and hot drinks will accompany you for a moment of relaxation and fun in a friendly and warm atmosphere.

Les Jardins

A DIALOGUE BETWEEN NATURE AND ARCHITECTURE

Like a long take in filmmaking, walking from the lobby to the gardens will have travellers holding their breath. One of a kind, La Mamounia gardens are famous and legendary in equal measure. They provide a sweeping panorama of triumphant nature stretching over 8 hectares and lulled by melodious birdsong. The eyes are drawn to the horizon, where you can make out the rooftops of the Medina, the Koutoubia Mosque, and the Atlas mountains in the distance.

Spa & Wellness

A journey to the self

Follow the stairs and let the lanterns' chiaroscuro effect guide the way to La Mamounia's Spa. This place is a veritable sanctuary dedicated to beauty and well-being. This vast facility covers 2,500 sq. m. Smooth marble, rounded curves and bands of tadelakt together form a harmonious ensemble, sheltered from outside light, creating a soothing, subdued atmosphere where time seems to stand still the moment you step inside.

For a moment of relaxation in complete intimacy, alone or as a couple, the Private Spa allows you to live a unique experience away from prying eyes.

The Hammams

LA MAMOUNIA HAMMAM IN MARRAKESH – TREAT YOURSELF TO A MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE

Ever since ancient times, heat has been used to ease tension. The hammam is central to Moroccan culture, it forms part of a purifying and soothing beauty ritual.

An interplay of light and shadow gradually reveals the hammams of La Mamounia little by little. Through the steam, one can make out exquisite mosaic tiles and marble benches where time no longer has a hold.
